Team Manager – Duties and Responsibilities for NSW & Vic. Meets

The duties and responsibilities of the Team Manager are as follows.

To represent the O&M committee in all aspects of Team Management and make decisions appropriate to the situation employing all available resources to ensure the safe participation and return of team members and support staff by;

- Engender ESPRIT de CORPS (Team regard for honour and & interests of O&M)
- Confirming that parental permission and athlete code of conduct forms have been distributed to the team members selected and are also available on the O&M web site.
- Ensuring that no team member is left unattended with any adult other than their parent or an adult with a valid NSW or Victorian 'Working With Children Check' accreditation as applicable.
- Confirming bookings for the bus and departure times to and from the venue.
- Checking team members (swimmers and support staff) on to the bus collecting any money and information forms, parental permission & code of conduct forms (swimmers, coaches and support staff). This includes medical details and emergency contact numbers.
- Ensuring all team members return on the bus unless arrangements have been made to the contrary prior to the departure date.
- Confirming details for pool entry at the venue and manage team entry.
- Liaising with swim meet officials as required.
- Organizing a time keeping roster (one lane only).
- Ensuring swimmers report to marshalling on time including escort for 10 and under (using support staff as required).
- Ensuring team members are issued with representative swim caps and shirts.
- It is also preferable that the Team Manager remain with the team at all times delegating duties to the coach or support staff as appropriate.
- Liaise with the team coach to ensure both parties are aware of any change in circumstances or incidents.
- Adjudicate any team dispute (based on advice for support staff and coach) between staff and/or swimmer.
