

Swimming Victoria Awards Night – Jenny Weldon, Mark Synnot - July 2015

The Swimming Victoria Awards night was recently held in Melbourne to celebrate the 2014/2015 Season. Ovens and Murray District has some notable recipients with former Albury/Wangaratta swimmer Belinda Hocking taking out the Victorian Swimmer of the Year Award after her Commonwealth Games performance which saw her win a gold medal in the 200m Backstroke. Recognition also went to Tap-ky Duong who was one of the joint winners of the Administrator of the Year Award. Tap has been influential in training members as Timekeepers, Judge of Strokes and Starters in our District. Further awards went to Jenny Weldon(Wodonga) and Mark Synnot (Wangaratta) who were both recognised for their selection as team coaches on the Victorian Team in the past season.
